UC students will work with children ages 5-9 in classrooms and other learning situation under the direction of a teacher or another adult-in-charge (librarian, aquatics director etc.) Participants work with individuals and small groups, and will not be expected to do outside lesson preparation. The school population is multi-ethnic and multi-cultural. A number of children are learning English as a second language. Washington Primary School, a public school in the Berkeley Unified School District, is located three blocks west of the UC campus.

Course requirements: In addition to working a minimum of three hours weekly, the student will attend two one hour seminars and turn in a reaction paper- a thoughtful response to their experience at Washington School.
